Q. Read the passage given below and write the correct option.

The crow is the most prominent bird in the world. Crows are found everywhere in the world except Antarctica. There are about forty types of crows, but we are familiar with only two or three types of crows. We often see the crows on the top of our buildings, but they like open spaces where there are dense trees. By the way, the crows live alone but whenever one of them dies, the other crows hover around it to mourn.

Dead animals are the favourite food of the crows. Crows are neither vegetarian nor non-vegetarian. That means, they eat anything. The average lifespan of a crow is 14 to 15 years. A crow can lay up to four eggs at a time.
